T-shirts are ready. Please pick yours up.

Janet Bailey, teacher from the Country Day School who presented a presentation for the AMA education committee-funding group for the project "Yes Grant" has yet to hear a response from the AMA.

Fuel – We have re-supplied the supply of fuel. We have cases of 4 gallons per case. Pay the club and we will distribute it to members as requested. The fuel is 15% and sells for $12.00.

NEW BUSINESS:

For the meeting 10/11/01
Treasurer reports $ 2006.12

During September meeting we opened nominations for next year's officers:

Bill Smith was nominated for President
Dale Dutt was nominated for Vice-President
Loren Bailey volunteered to be treasurer
Greg Perkins volunteered to be secretary

October's meeting continued the nominations for officers, there were none. Nominations were closed.

New member application was given to Maurice Lambert and will be voted for in the next meeting.

Guest can fly with you as your guest. You must see there AMA card for them to do so. In order to fly on our field you must have your AMA card with you and clip it or a copy to your frequency number.

We don't want people flying who we do not know who they are. We want to meet new members and if they are interested in flying they must come to the meeting to get an application or bring an application to be voted in.

Membership is now at 29.
