T-shirts are ready. Please pick yours up.

Bill Smith reports the new wire is up all the way around the field.

Janet Bailey, teacher from the Country Day School who presented a presentation for the AMA education committee-funding group for the project "Yes Grant" has yet to hear a response from the AMA.

Fuel – We have re-supplied the supply of fuel and have received it. We purchased 16 cases of 4 gallons per case. Pay the club and we will distribute it to members as requested. It was discovered several cases were 5% and we are selling them for $6.00. The normal fuel is 15% and sells for $12.00.

NEW BUSINESS:

For the meeting 9/14/01

With 10 members and one visitor present.

Treasurer reports $2108.12

The September meeting opened nominations for next year's officers:

Bill Smith was nominated for President

Dale Dutt was nominated for Vice-President

Loren Bailey volunteered to be treasurer

Greg Perkins volunteered to be secretary

The positions should be voted on during the October meeting, but it was decided since I have not sent out notice or nominations, that they remain open through the October meeting. The vote will be held in October for next years officers. Please come and let your vote count.

New member application was given to Maurice Lambert and will be voted for in the next meeting.
